Instructions:

1. Do not change the problem statements we are giving you. Simply add your solutions by editing this latex document.
2. If you need more space, add a page between the existing pages using the `\newpage` command.
3. Export the completed assignment as a PDF file for upload to gradescope.
4. On gradescope, upload only one copy per partnership. (Instructions for uploading to gradescope will be posted on the assignments page of the course website.)

Academic Conduct: I certify that my assignment follows the academic conduct rules for CPSC 121 as outlined on the course website. As part of those rules, when collaborating with anyone outside my group, (1) I and my collaborators took no record but names away, and (2) after a suitable break, my group created the assignment I am submitting without help from anyone other than the course staff.

1. (0.25 marks) Write a few sentences telling us how your interest in computer science shapes your dreams and goals for the future.

At the beginning, I liked to play computer games, and I took computer science as my major. To be honest, I don't have such a big goal for my computer science. however, I have a goal to earn 100 dollar per hour by using my skill.

2. (0.25 marks) Reflect for a moment about a past project or an assignment that you completed successfully. Make a list of the features of the situation that contributed to your feeling of accomplishment. List at least 5 things.

1. I have learned Java, once I finish my lab. I feel accomplishment. 2. I sell cars, there is accomplishment when i sold a car. 3. I gave people promotion when I sold telephone at Bell. 4. I won a basketball game. 5. I find people like me can get in UBC

3. (0.25 points) If you'd like, please let us know your apprehensions about the course. This is the first term in University; Therefore, I need time to know the rules. I found there are so many things need to be done during weekend.

4. (0.25 points) Which of the following is likely to be your biggest challenge for the term:

- (a) getting enough sleep
- (b) eating well
- (c) exercising
- (d) human connection

A I feel I cannot get enough sleep even Sunday
